March 31 at 11 am Chicago time. Milton Reed and Tia Cauley have confirmed for that meeting time. East Chicago and Lake County Indiana (thank God) opted to stay with the same time zone we have always been in since we are part of the Chicago metropolitan area. We are always one hour behind Washington D.C./New York, etc., and in sync with the City of Chicago.

Please let me know if I can help you with anything else.

We can meet on the morning of March 31.

Just so there is no mistake, you DO mean central STANDARD time, not central DAYLIGHT time? Specifically, Chicago is now on central DAYLIGHT time so that would mean that East Chicago is one hour ahead of Chicago. (I know Indiana does funky stuff with time zones so I am always a little confused.)

Thanks for clarifying.
